TO STRENGTHEN ANTI-TRUST LAW

Senate Commerce Committee Has Started Hearings.

MAY MEAN STRICTER CONTROL

Investigating Committees Have Resumed Sessions-Popular Interest In Arbitration Treaties-Chief Justice White Likes a Real Crow-Smith Family Strong In the Senate.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 20.-[Special.]-Senator Clapp and his committee on interstate commerce have begun an inquiry authorized last session to find out what changes are desirable in relation to the creation and control of corporations engaged in interstate commerce. What is really intended is to ascertain if a general corporation act can be passed.

It means changes in the Sherman anti-trust law and greater control of corporations by the United States government. It will take several weeks, perhaps months, for the committee to formulate a report, as the subject is the biggest question that can come before congress.

Other Committees Active.

Several committees which began investigations last summer have resumed their inquiries in Washington and elsewhere so as to get their work completed before the busy days of the session, which will be soon after the

All summer long Justice White enjoyed the strong notes of that early morning crowing rooster. He declared he had never heard a sweeter voiced fowl. But as cold weather approached he sent word to the farmer that he wanted him to come and take the

He told the justice that as he was asked to take the rooster back he supposed he wanted his money returned. "My dear man," replied Justice White, "I don't want your dollar. CALUMNY.

Calumny is the very worst of all evils. In it there are two who commit injustice and one who is injured, for he who calumniates another acts unjustly by accusing one who is not present, and he acts unjustly who is persuaded before he has learned the exact truth, and he that is absent when the charge is made is thus doubly injured, being calumniated by the one and by the other deemed to be base. - Herod-

He who has erected a beautifui house has blessed a whole community in building it. No man wants to build an ugly house thereafter. but strives to build a handsomer. GOOD NATURE.

Good nature is more agreeable in conversation than wit, and it gives that to the countenance which is more pleasing than beauty.

As a Critic Saw Browning. There was marked vulgarity about Browning, particularly in his accent and in the tone of his voice and a certain indescribable savor of sycophancy of a man eager to be of a grade to which he did not belong, but the poet was there-the poet's keen eye, the poet's heart, obvious in his remarks and descriptions.-Memoirs of John Churton Collins.

CALUMNY

Calumny is the very worst of all evils. In it there are two who commit injustice and one who is injured, for he who calumniates another acts unjustly by accusing one who is not present, and he acts unjustly who is persuaded before he has learned the exact truth, and he that is absent when the charge is made is thus doubly injured, being calumniated by the one and by the other deemed to be base. - Herod-

GOOD NATURE.

Good nature is more agreeable in conversation than wit, and it gives that to the countenance which is more pleasing than beauty.

As a Critic Saw Browning.

There was marked vulgarity about Browning, particularly in his accent and in the tone of his voice and a certain indescribable savor of sycophancy of a man eager to be of a grade to which he did not belong, but the poet was there-the poet's keen eye, the poet's heart, obvious in his remarks and descriptions.-Memoirs of John Churton Collins.

Here's an Overcoat - that any Man can Wear and look well in

It's only one of the new models we are showing authorized by the House of Kuppenheimer and skillfully hand tailored by them.

No matter where you go, you'll be dressed in good taste and in the latest style, if you're wearing this model or any one of these Kuppenheimer overcoats.

We have them in the new shades, plain blacks, checks, stripes, in gray and brown mixtures, some smooth; some rough finish—all fabrics exclusively shown in this section by us.

We have also a comprehensive display of Kuppenheimer suits. Nobby models for the young man who likes something a bit extreme; not freakish or out of any known style—but correct; others in conservative styles for the man who wears sedate and strictly unobtrusive clothes.

You'll find the prices right—see these garments, they're built for every man who wants best.

Let us show you the latest in dress shirts with collars to match, the new tan button shoes, rough finished hats or high collar sweaters. Many new things.
